*437. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have formulated a scheme for the people displaced due to land acquisition for the 45 coal projects to be executed by the State owned Coal comany; and

(b) if so, the features of the scheme for protecting interest of the people who have been displaced?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COAL (DR. DASARI NARAYAN RAO): (a) No, Sir, However Coal India Ltd. (CIL), under the administrative control of Ministry of Coal, has a well defined Resettlement and Rehabilitation (R&R) Policy, which is applicable for resettlement and rehabilitation of persons displaced by all the coal mining projects implemented by its subsidiary companies.

(b) The salient features of the existing R&R Policy of CIL are summarized in table below:

Category of Persons affected by the Project	Compensation and Rehabilitation entitlement option
	Provisions
A (i) Persons (including tribals cultivating land under traditional rights) from whom land is acquired.	All and owners with titles will receive monetary compensation for the land acquired from them. In addition to above the following shall apply. Employment in lieu of land Employment against land shall be considered in exceptional circumstances only to fill vacancies subject to the land losers meeting the eligibility criteria and further subject to approval of the Board of Directors of the subsidiary company concerned. The norms of employment will be as under: 1. The subsidiary companies shall offer employment to land losers as per the norms announced by the concerned State Government. 2. In case there is no norm of the State Government for offer of employment, the same shall be regulated as under: One employment for every 2 acres of land. However, the subsidiaries who are granting one employment against 2 acres of irrigated land or 3 acres of non-irrigated land will continue the same policy. 3. The offer of employment will be given subject to the candidates meeting the minimum eligibility criteria and they will be required to undergo minimum two years training in any trade as may be decided by the management. After successful completion of training and subject of qualifying in the trade test, the candidates will be offered employment against vacancies in any of the subsidiaries in appropriate grade. During the period of training, the candidates will be entitled to a stipend of Rs. 2000/- per month in the first year and Rs. 2500/- per month in the second year (all inclusive). In case the land owner is offered employment as piece rated worker (UG Loader), the stipulation of 2 years training will not be applicable to him. In case the candidate fails to qualify in the trade test he would be eligible for monetary compensation in lieu of employment as stated above minus the stipend paid.

The rate of monetary compensation will be reviewed once in three years.

4. In case it is not possible to offer employment due to lack of vacancies, the candidate shall continue to be paid subsistence allowance @ Rs. 2500/- per month till the time he is offered employment against vacancy in any subsidiary company. During the intervening period, i.e. till he is appointed against vacancy, he will be required to undergo an alternate training in any subsidiary as may be considered necessary.
